

February 22

Contributed by Gunnar Svensson

Defenseman Petri Liimatainen (born -69) will play his regular season game number 1000 (thusen !) tomorrow when his danish club Hvidovre play Fredrikshavn home. We talking about senior-games. On the top of that Petri also have played 115 play-off games over the years with different clubs. How many players in Europe over the years can match that numbers ?

Petri have played hockey in 5 countrys - Sweden, Germany, Switzerland, Austria and Denmark. Have been winning the championship in two countrys. Malmo/Sweden and Koln/Germany.

He won the WC Pool A with Sweden 1992 in Prague. Have played (on the top of the games with his clubs) 44 games with the Swedish National Team, Tre Kronor. 14 games with the Swedish B-National Team and 21 games with the Swedish Junior National Team.